1. The principal members of the LI Tsung-jen group in the Legislative Yuan are attempting to organize an anti-Communist underground political movement to function when a coalition government is established.
2. Some members of the group are remaining in Nanking and Shanghai, some are in Kweilin and Canton, and others plan to go to Hong Kong. The group plans to establish headquarters in Hong Kong to publicize political views and to make contacts to seek the support of overseas Chinese.
3. If the Nationalists are unable to maintain resistance to the Communists or if they find they cannot reach a satisfactory arrangement with them, LI Tsung-jen may go to Hong Kong as leader of this movement.
